About the Developmental Disabilities Planning Council

The NYS Developmental Disabilities Planning Council is New York's designated Council on Developmental Disabilities and addresses the needs of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities through the development of demonstration projects around advocacy, systems change, and capacity building efforts that promote self-determination, integration, and inclusion in all facets of life. Need more info? Please visit our website: <https://ddpc.ny.gov/>

About the CoP:

The mission of the New York CoP is to increase access to information about the developmental disabilities network, developmental disabilities services, supports, and individual rights through outreach, training, and education for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families who have limited English proficiency. <https://ddpc.ny.gov/cultural-competency>
